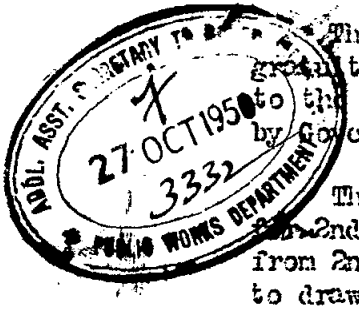
Office of the Examiner of L.F.Accounts,
Mount Road, Madras, Dated October 1950

Sub: Compassionate gratuity - late Louis Mascarenhas.
Ref: Public Works Department ~~Endorsement~~ U.O 2013 F1.50-1 dated 18th September 1950.

...



There is no audit objection to the payment of a compassionate gratuity of Rs.522/- as recommended by the Presidency Port Officer to the legal heirs of the late Louis Mascarenhas being sanctioned by Government.

The deceased was on leave on average pay on Medical Certificate from 2nd August 1949 to 1st December 1949 and on leave on half pay from 2nd December 1949 to 29th March 1950. As he would be eligible to draw House Rent Allowance for the first four months of leave on average pay only, the excess house rent allowance drawn for the period from 2nd December 1949 to 29th March 1950 works out to Rs.11-11-0 and not Rs.10-2-0 as stated by the Presidency Port Officer in paragraph 3 of his letter to Government. The excess payment of Rs.11-11-0 is recoverable from the amount of gratuity payable to the dependants.

The enclosures received are returned herewith.

No. 1498 g/50-4 dated 12th Sept 1950.

Sir,

Sub: The Madras Port Subordinate Service - Class IV Category 2 - Late Louis Mascarenhas, Boatman, Mangalore - Compassionate gratuity to Mrs. Lucy Mascarenhas, mother of the deceased - Sanction requested.

Ref: G.O.No.120 Finance (Pension) dated 22-3-1932.
G.O. No.254 Finance (Pension) dated 12-5-1944.

Sri Louis Mascarenhas, Boatman, Mangalore, belonging to the Madra Port Subordinate Service died on 29-3-1950, while in service and the death was due to illness. He has put in a total service of over 34 years. He was a bachelor. His mother, Mrs. Lucy Mascarenhas, has applied for grant of compassionate gratuity, as she and her unmarried daughter were wholly dependent on him. The report from the revenue authorities as to the pecuniary circumstances of the deceased's family reveal that financial aid to the applicant and to her daughter (unmarried sister of the deceased) is deserving. The late subordinate was neither a subscriber to the General Provident Fund nor does his life appear to have been insured as there is no mention about it in the report of the Revenue authorities, who have however been addressed again to furnish the information. This will be submitted to Government as soon as it is received. The service of the individual was very satisfactory and he had been a good worker. His substantive pay immediately before his death was Rs.24-8-0 plus Rs.19/- p.m. Dearness Allowance.

2. The papers relating to the compassionate gratuity are accordingly forwarded herewith recommending an amount of Rs.522/- being twelve months' emoluments with reference to the G.O. second cited. The conditions prescribed in G.O.No.120 Finance (Pension) dated 22-3-1932 are satisfied in this case. The expenditure is debitable to the Provincial Minor Ports Fund Act XV of 1908.

3. I recommend

3. I recommend the proposal and request that Government will be pleased to accord sanction to the payment of the gratuity of Rs.522/- to Mrs. Lucy Mascarenhas, mother of the deceased subordinate and his sister Miss Magie Mascarenhas, aged 24 years.

The deceased was paid an excess amount of Rs.10-2-0 being House Rent Allowance during his leave on medical certificate from 2-8-49 to 20-3-50 and this amount will be recovered from the amount of gratuity payable to the dependents.

Enc: 1. Application d/17-4-1950 from Mrs. Lucy Mascarenhas
2. Report of the Revenue authorities etc. (10 sheets)
3. Service register of the subordinate
4. Last-pay Certificate.

Yours faithfully,

Presidency Port Officer.

Copy to the Port Officer, Mangalore. He is requested to expedite report about the deceased having insured his life or not, also send the note to committee administering the compassionate grant for transmission to Government.

The Port Officer,

S i r,

I beg to submit for your kind and sympathetic consideration the following few lines with fervent hope that the same would be given due effect by you.

My son Louis Mascarenhas who was living with me and whom I was looking after during his illness expired on 29-3-1950 as already intimated to your office. He has left nothing to meet his expenses for his illness, funeral cost and other expenses and I had to bear his cost of treatment for about 8 months at Bombay and at Mangalore too. I have had to meet heavy expenses for his long illness.

My said son had been in the Port Department Service for a long period of about 30 years or so, during which period he had served you loyally and faithfully.

On account of the hard pressed and divergent circumstances I am placed, besides his loss to me, I beg to request your goodself to kindly grant any compassionate gratuity which will help me and my unmarried daughter a great deal.

He had been of great help to me and family and in particular to his unmarried sister who were all entirely dependent on him. He served in a pensionable post but on account of his premature death he did not survive to earn his pension.

Again praying for your generous consideration of my bonafide case.

I also request that the arrears of pay, etc.,

due to him may alsc be drawn and paid to me as I am the legal claimant.

I beg to remain,
Sir,
Yours obediently,

Heard N. Ref 7407/59-B4
dated 22-6-60. I am the mother of late Louis Mascarenhas and my age is about 75½ years. I have one daughter, Magie Mascarenhas aged about 24 years. We are the only dependants of late Louis Mascarenhas and we had to spent a lot of money during my son's
last illness and for his funeral ceremony. The late Louis Mascarenhas has one younger brother Lawrence Mascarenhas aged about 48 years. He is living seperately with his family as he is not in a position to help me or my daughter in any way except morally. He is employed in Bombay Steam Navigation Company Mangalore
drawing a monthly salary
Rs 85/- As he is living seperate with his family he cannot give us any monetary help
He has no objection for I am my daughter claiming the amount due to my late son
I have no other clo

relatives who are able or willing to give us any helps. We have no immovable properties and our pecuniary circumstance is rather hopeless.

As my late son is not married and as such
I and my (~~daug~~) daughter are the legal heirs on the ground of that my other son, Lawrence Mascarenhas has no objection for we claiming the amount due to my late son. Hence I request that any amount due to my son may be disbursed to us at an early date.

To A.S.

The proposal in this file relates to the payment of a compassionate gratuity to Mrs Lucy Mascarenhas, mother of the late Sri Louis Mascarenhas, boatman at the Port of Mangalore. It is reported that late Sri Louis Mascarenhas had put in a total service of over 34 years and that he was a bachelor. He died on 29.3.1950 while in service. His mother Mrs Lucy Mascarenhas has applied for the grant of a compassionate gratuity as she and her unmarried daughter were wholly dependent on him. The late Subordinate was not a subscriber to the General Provident Fund nor was his life insured. The report of the Revenue authorities reveals that financial aid to his family is necessary. The P.P.O has stated that the service of the individual was very satisfactory and that he had been a good worker. He has therefore recommended the payment of Rs. 522/- (Rupees five hundred and twenty two only) representing 12 months pay plus dearness allowance (Rs. 24.80+19.00) to his mother and unmarried sister subject to a recovery of Rs. 10/- being excess pay drawn by him while in service. The Examiner of P.F. Accts has stated that there is no audit objection to the payment of the Amount recommended by the P.R.O. Subject to the recovery of Rs. 10/.

2. The conditions prescribed in Go. No. 120 Finance dt 22.3.1932 are satisfied in this case. The expenditure is debitable to the Mysore Public Fund. The note for the Committee administering the Compassionate grant is at pr 41 cf. The file may now be subt. to the Chief Secretary for orders whether the amount of gratuity recommended by the P.R.O. and agreed to by the Exam. of P.F. Accts Viz., Rs 522/- subject to the recovery of Rs 10/- may be sanctioned. 'X' above is for appval.
